Professor Mario Ferrari Aggradi
Secretary General
Interministerial Committee for Reconstruction
Rome, Italy

Dear Professor Ferrari Aggradi:

In accordance with your request, we are writing this letter to confirm our agreement to furnish legal assistance to you, the Cassa del il Mezzogiorno, and other officials and agencies of the Government of Italy in connection with the negotiations looking toward a loan agreement between the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the Cassa del il Mezzogiorni, to be guaranteed by the Government of Italy.

Our charges for performing these services will be computed on the basis of our regular legal time charge rates per lawyer's hour, at the rate of $35 per hour for my time, $25 per hour for the time of my partners, and $20 per hour for the time of other associates of this office. There will be no other charge of any kind, except for normal disbursements, such as telephone, transportation, printing and similar items.

In order that you might exercise control over the amount of time and charges attributable to this matter, we would be happy to submit billings on a monthly basis.

The above arrangement will, of course, be terminable by you at any time.

We very much appreciate the opportunity to assist you in the loan negotiations, and we hope that we may be of service.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Oscar Cox

REGISTRATION No. 746

May 29, 1952

Dear Professor Avv. Scaglioni:

We appreciate very much your letter of May 19 in answer to my letter of May 10 to you about the fees of our firm for legal services.

We are entirely willing, as I have indicated in my letter of May 10, 1952, to bill on any basis desired by the Cassa which is fair and reasonable.

Since the Cassa prefers not to be billed on an hourly basis, my concrete proposals are that:

1. For our legal services rendered to the Cassa for the somewhat more than eight months' period from October 20, 1951, to June 1, 1952, we be compensated by a lump sum payment of $3,000 plus our actual out-of-pocket disbursements for cables, telephone calls, taxis, postage, etc., in the amount of $48.17; and
2. For the period from June 1, 1952, on we be compensated on a retainer basis at the rate of $300 per month, plus out-of-pocket disbursements, to cover all of our legal services except extraordinary legal services.

About extraordinary services, the understanding would be that no charges for them will be incurred by the Cassa unless and until you agree in advance that the services are extraordinary and what the rate of compensation should be for them. For example, if a trip to Rome should be deemed necessary or desirable by the Cassa in order to expedite the opinions to the International Bank, and is approved by the Cassa as being extraordinary, then it would be outside the retainer and on a fee basis approved by the Cassa.

We suggest that for the legal services to be rendered subsequent to June 1, 1952, on the retainer basis of $300 per month this arrangement be for a period of six months from June 1 on, with the understanding that the Cassa and we can and will review the retainer in the light of the actual experience under it in order to determine whether the retainer should be continued at all, and whether it should be decreased or increased. It is our feeling that this should be done before the six months expire in the light of the actual experience to determine what is most fair and reasonable.

We make these proposals because we understand from your letter of May 19 that the Cassa would prefer some fee basis other than our billing on a straight hourly basis. We would, of course, appreciate your very frank reactions to these proposals since we consider it of first importance that you and the Cassa be fully satisfied.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Oscar Cox,
of Cox, Langford,
Stoddard & Cutler
1210, 18th Street, N. W.

Dear Mr. Cox:

I am replying to your letter of May 29, with regard to the fees of your firm for legal services.

I am glad to express my agreement to the proposals contained in your letter.

I would appreciate it, therefore, if you would kindly submit a bill to the "Cassa" in request of the compensation on a lump-sum basis (plus out-of-pocket disbursements) for the period October 20, 1951, June 1, 1952.

From that date on, I would like to receive monthly bills calling for the proposed retainer fee (plus out-of-pocket disbursements), with the understanding that:

- a: the retainer basis will cover all services but the extraordinary, for which special agreements between you and me are preliminarily required;
- b: the arrangement will have a tentative duration of six months, from June 1, 1952, on, but the fee basis shall be reviewed within the next three months, and possibly revised by mutual agreement, in the light of actual experience.

I am sure that this method will prove satisfactory and fair for both parties.

With my best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Prov. Avv. Alfredo Scaglioni)

REGISTRATION No. 146

Dear Mr. Cox:

I wish to express my satisfaction for the Loan becoming effective and the valid support provided to that end by your firm and by you personally.

With the becoming effective of the Loan, I feel that the need will no longer exist of retaining your legal counsel in a continuous way, which prompted the adoption of the retainer fee basis to compensate legal services rendered by your firm.

Also with reference to the agreement by which the above retainer basis should be revised within three months, i.e. by the month of September, I think that the retainer fee should be discontinued as of October 1st, 1952.

It is understood that the Cassa will continue to rely on your firm's services for all future aspects of the Loan that will require legal counsel, and such services will be separately compensated from time to time.

Please accept my most hearty thanks for your fine cooperation and best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Dear President Rocco:

We appreciate very much your letter of September 30, 1952.

We think that your decision about our legal services is a wise one. We feel that it would be better for the Cassa as well as for ourselves not to be on a retainer basis from October 1 on, but to render such legal services as you need, to be separately compensated for from time to time.

We suggest that this compensation be on the basis of our regular time charges.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Oscar Cox
